8th August 1982*

With the throttle fully open, No. 40172 heads the 1K29 12.55 departure out of Holyhead for Crewe. On this particular day, no less than 10 different 40's worked passenger services in and out of the town compared to only 5 Class 47's!

Plate 47 *Outskirts of Holyhead,
12th March 1977*

Driver Bill Douch eases No. 40028 past signal 114 on the outskirts of Holyhead working an afternoon departure from Euston. Originally named 'Samaria' in September 1960, it was withdrawn from service in October 1984 and stored before final disposal some four years later at Crewe Works in February 1988.
